Regulations of King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang
Re: Graduate Education, B.E. 2565 (A.D. 2022)

Whereas it is deemed expedient to revise the regulations regarding graduate education of King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang to better suit the current graduate program management;

By virtue of Section 22(2) of the King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang Act, B.E. 2551 (A.D. 2008), in conjunction with the resolution of the Academic Council at its 8/2022 Meeting on 23 August 2022 and the Extraordinary Meeting on 26 August 2022, the resolution of the Institute Council's Academic Affairs Subcommittee at its 9/2022 Meeting on 2 September 2022, and the resolution of King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang Council at its 10/2022 Meeting on 18 October 2022, these regulations are enacted as follows:

Article 1. These regulations shall be called "the Regulations of King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang Re: Graduate Education, B.E. 2565 (A.D. 2022)."

Article 2. These regulations shall come into force from 18 October 2022 onwards.

Article 3. Regulations of King Mongkut's Institute of Technology Ladkrabang Re: Graduate Education, B.E. 2564 (A.D. 2021), shall be repealed.

All provisions of other regulations, rules, orders, notifications, or resolutions insofar as they deal with matters governed by these regulations or are contrary to or inconsistent with these regulations shall be repealed and replaced by these regulations.

Article 4. The President shall hold the acting position hereunder, have the power to issue the rules, notifications or orders of the Institute that are not contrary to these regulations, with approval of the Academic Council, and report the same to the Institute Council.

In case of doubt, or if no provisions are specifically stated in these regulations, or if it is necessary to specially provide a relief of requirements hereunder, judgment of the Academic Council shall be final.

Rules set forth by the Ministry of Higher Education, Science, Research and Innovation shall be applied in any instance where no other provisions are specifically stated in these regulations.

Article 9. The Institute may arrange for the undergraduate students to take some graduate courses in advance in accordance with the Institute's Regulations on Advanced Undergraduate Program Management.

Article 10. The Institute may accept trial students to study or conduct research and when all of the conditions set forth by the Academic Division Committee are met, the trial students will be eligible to apply for becoming regular students within the designated period. The study period of a trial student will be counted from the moment he/she has achieved the status of a regular student.

Chapter 3
Academic Staff

Article 11. Categories, number, qualifications and characteristics of the academic staff:

11.1 "Full-time lecturer" means a person holding the position of lecturer, assistant professor, associate professor, professor, or other equivalent position in the Institute, or a person in an outside organization that enters into a cooperation agreement with the Institute, being responsible for fulfilling the Institute's missions, understanding the qualifications for the higher education, and working full-time.

11.2 "Program lecturer" means a full-time lecturer whose qualification is corresponding or related to the field of study of the program offered and is responsible for teaching or conducting research in such field of study. One lecturer can be a program lecturer of many programs at the same time, but his/her qualification must be corresponding or related to the field of study of those programs and prior approval of the committee of the academic division, which is his/her organic unit, must be obtained.

"Qualification related to the field of study of the program" means the qualification established in the field of study standard. If there is no notification on the field of study standard or the existing field of study standard has no provision relating to this matter, it shall refer to the qualification related to the academic or professional matter of the program or any other qualification with direct experience in the program obviously promoting the instruction in such program and enabling the students to complete the objectives of the program. Consideration of the related qualification shall be at the sole discretion of the Institute Council.

11.3 "Lecturer responsible for the program" means a program lecturer who is responsible for managing and developing the program and instruction, from planning to quality control, monitoring and assessment, and program development. The lecturer responsible for the program shall be involved throughout the period of implementation of the program. A lecturer responsible for the program may not be responsible for more than one program at a time. However, for multidisciplinary or interdisciplinary programs, the lecturer responsible for the program can be responsible for another program and there shall be no more than two repeated lecturers responsible for the program.

The same set of lecturers responsible for the program may be used for master's degree and doctoral degree programs of the same field of study.

11.11.3.2 There shall be at least one thesis co-advisor who is a program lecturer, full-time lecturer, researcher, or external expert, provided that the program lecturer, full-time lecturer, researcher shall have the same qualifications and academic outputs as the major advisor.

In case of a thesis co-advisor who is an external expert, he/she shall have a doctoral degree or the equivalent thereof and have not less than 10 academic papers published in journals named in a nationally recognized database (TCI Group 1 or 2) and in international journals named in an internationally recognized database, which match or are related to the thesis title, provided that, at a minimum, three outputs are research papers published in international journals or creative works that have been disseminated to the general public.

In case of an external expert not having the qualifications and academic achievements stated above, such external expert shall have highly recognized knowledge, expertise and experience corresponding or related to the thesis title and be granted approval of the Institute Council.

11.11.4 A Thesis Examination Committee shall consist of not less than five members, including program lecturers, and maybe full-time lecturers or researchers, and at least two external experts. In this regard, the chair of the Thesis Examination Committee must be an external expert. Qualifications and academic achievements of the Thesis Examination Committee members shall be as follows:

11.11.4.1 A Thesis Examination Committee member who is a program lecturer, full-time lecturer or researcher shall hold a doctoral degree or its equivalent, or, at a minimum, a master's degree or its equivalent with an academic title of professor, and have at least three international academic outputs, which are not a part of the study for a degree, published in accordance with the criteria for appointing a person to hold an academic title during the past five years, provided that, at a minimum, one output is a research paper published in an international journal or a creative work disseminated to the general public.

11.11.4.2 In case of an external expert, he/she shall have a doctoral degree or the equivalent thereof and have not less than 10 academic papers published in nationally and internationally recognized databases, which match or are related to the thesis title, provided that, at a minimum, three outputs are research papers published in international journals or creative works disseminated to the general public.

In case of an external expert not having the qualifications and academic achievements stated above, such external expert shall have highly recognized knowledge, expertise and experience corresponding or related to the thesis title and be granted approval of the Institute Council.

11.11.5 A lecturer giving instructions shall be a full-time or part-time lecturer who holds a doctoral degree or its equivalent, or has a minimum of a master's degree or its equivalent with an academic title of associate professor in that field or in a related field or in the field of the courses taught, has experience in teaching, and has produced in the past 5 years at least one international academic output which is not a part of graduation requirements and published in accordance with the publication criteria specified for academic title appointment.

In the case where a course taught is not a subject in the field of study of the program, a lecturer holding a master's degree or its equivalent having an academic title lower than the associate professor may be allowed to be a lecturer giving instructions.

11.11.6 In case of a new lecturer having a doctoral degree, even though he/she does not have any academic output after graduation, he/she shall be permitted to serve as a teaching staff member of the doctoral program. However, if he/she wishes to serve as a program lecturer, a lecturer responsible for the program, a thesis advisor, and a member of the doctoral degree thesis examination committee, he/she shall have a minimum of one academic paper within two years, two academic papers within four years, or three academic papers within five years after graduation.

In this regard, a part-time lecturer's teaching hours shall not exceed 50% of the course. If it is necessary for a part-time lecturer to teach over 50% of the total teaching hours of a course, approval of the committee of the Academic Division owning the course and the Academic Council shall be granted. Moreover, there shall be a full-time lecturer being responsible for such course.

11.12 Workload of a thesis or independent study advisor

11.12.1 One program lecturer may serve as a major thesis advisor of the master's and doctoral students in accordance with the following criteria:

11.12.1.1 In case of a program lecturer who holds a doctoral degree or its equivalent and has academic outputs in accordance with the established requirements, he/she may serve as a thesis advisor of not more than five master's and doctoral students per semester.

11.12.1.2 In case of a program lecturer who holds a master's degree or its equivalent with the academic title of associate professor, and has academic outputs in accordance with the established requirements, he/she may serve as a thesis advisor of not more than 10 master's students per semester.

11.12.1.3 In case of a program lecturer who holds a doctoral degree or its equivalent with an academic title of an assistant professor or higher, or holds a master's degree or its equivalent with an academic title of a professor, and has academic outputs in accordance with the established requirements, he/she may serve as a thesis advisor of not more than 10 master's and doctoral students per semester.

11.12.1.4 In the case where it is necessary for a program lecturer having a doctoral degree or equivalent and holding the academic title of professor to supervise more students than the established number, approval of the Academic Division Committee shall be presented to the Institute Council for approval. However, the program lecturer may be an advisor of not more than 15 students per semester. If it is necessary to supervise more than 15 students, approval of the Higher Education Standard Committee shall be sought on a case-by-case basis.

11.12.2 One program lecturer may serve as an independent study advisor of not more than 15 master's students. If the program lecturer is both a thesis and an independent study advisor, he/she can follow the following proportion of his/her workload: one thesis student equals three independent study students. However, the total number of his/her advisees shall not exceed 15 students per semester.

11.12.3 A lecturer responsible for a program must serve as a thesis advisor, and/or a member of the Thesis Examination Committee, and/or a lecturer giving instructions in the program.

11.13 Regarding the appointment of a full-time lecturer, program lecturer, and researcher as a teaching lecturer, thesis examiner, and major advisor and/or co-advisor as well as the appointment of a part-time lecturer as a teaching lecturer, thesis examiner and thesis co-advisor, it shall be the academic division's responsibility to verify qualifications of the full-time and part-time lecturers of each program and approval of the academic division committee shall be granted before submitting to the Academic Council for approval.

13.3 Applicants for the Master's Degree Program must have graduated with a bachelor's degree or a graduate diploma and have other qualifications stated in the Institute's admission announcement.

13.4 Applicants for the Doctoral Program must have a bachelor's degree with the grade point average of not less than 3.25 or a master's degree, achieve the required English examination scores, and have other qualifications as specified in the Institute's admission announcement.

13.5 Applicants must never have been dismissed from any higher education institute due to improper behavior or misconducts.

13.6 Applicants must never have been punished due to commission of or involvement in cheating on any kind of placement test.

13.7 Applicants must have additional English competency and skills prescribed in the Institute's announcement.

13.8 Applicants must not have financial obligations due to the Institute.

Article 14. Reporting of new students of the Institute shall be as provided in the Institute's announcement.

Article 15. There are two categories of students as follows:

15.1 A regular student is a student accepted by the Institute without having to study or conduct research on a trial basis.

15.2 A trial student or research-based trial student means a student accepted by the Institute to study or conduct research on a trial basis and, upon satisfaction of all conditions set forth by the committee of the academic division, such student will be eligible to apply for transforming into a regular student.

Chapter 5
Enrollment, Payment of Tuition Fees, and Maintenance of Student Status

.....

Article 16. Students must enroll no more than 15 credits in each regular semester and no more than 6 credits in a special semester, excluding the non-credit courses.

Enrollment other than those described above shall require approval of the Academic Council.

Article 17. Students must enroll and pay tuition fees of all kinds in full on the date and time and in a manner specified by the Institute in the Graduate Studies Calendar.

17.1 In a regular semester, students who fail to enroll within the period designated by the Institute must complete the late enrollment within the period of time specified in the academic calendar and pay the late fee at the rate determined by the Institute. Upon expiry of such period, the students are required to apply for a leave of absence within the designated period of time, otherwise their student status will be terminated.

17.2 In a special semester, after the period of time specified in the academic calendar, if any student enrolls, but has not made full payment of the tuition fees and fine, it shall be deemed that such student has withdrawn all of the courses enrolled. In this regard, Office of the Registrar will proceed to immediately withdraw the courses and it shall be deemed that such enrollment is invalid.

17.3 In the case where it is deemed reasonable, the Office of the Registrar may announce discontinuation or addition of any course as notified by the responsible academic division. In case of addition of a course, the academic division shall notify the Office of the Registrar no later than five business days from the first day of that semester.

17.4 In the case where the program or advisor requires the student to enroll in a non-credit (NC) course, the credit of such course will not be included in the program and the average grade point will not be calculated.

17.5 Students who have enrolled shall make payment of tuition fees in full within the period of time specified in the academic calendar. Upon expiry of the designated period, the students shall pay a fine at the rate determined by the Institute. If the students have not made payment of tuition fees and fine in full at the end of such period, they have to apply for leave of absence within the designated period, otherwise their student status will be terminated.

17.6 In the case where a student fails to make payment of tuition fees in full, the Institute reserves the right not to issue him/her the transcript and all kinds of certificates. If the student has completed the program, he/she will not be approved for graduation or nominated to the Institute Council to receive the degree until the student has made full payment of tuition fees and fines. This, however, shall not last longer than two years from the date of completion of the program.

17.7 If a student is granted a scholarship, either from within or outside the Institute, and is in the process of waiting for the scholarship. Payment of tuition fees may be delayed until the scholarship is received, provided that the student submits to the Chief of Academic Division a request for postponement of payment and encloses evidence relating to the scholarship granted to support the request. The request will be proposed by Director of the Office of the Registrar to the President for approval within the period designated for payment of tuition fees.

17.8 In the case where a student has a financial problem due to an event of force majeure, the student may be granted special permission to make delayed payment of tuition fees and/or fines, subject to consent of the Chief of Academic Division and Director of the Office of the Registrar and approval of the President.

Article 18. Students may not enroll in courses with the same or overlapping study or examination dates and times, except for those students to graduate in that particular academic year who may enroll in courses with the same or overlapping examination dates and times, subject to approval of the Chief of Academic Division and permission of Director of the Office of the Registrar. The academic division that the students belong to shall organize the examinations. In this regard, the students shall file a request with the academic division they belong to within three weeks from the date of commencement of the semester.

Payment of tuition fees of all kinds shall be as prescribed in the Institute's notifications, subject to approval of the Academic Council.

Article 19. Cancelation of enrolment, exemption of tuition fees, reduction of tuition fees, time extension for payment of tuition fees, installment payment of tuition fees, refunds, and fines shall be approved by the President.

Article 20. Re-registration

20.1 A student whose grade level is lower than C+ or has a U in any course must re-register for that course, unless such course is not open. In that case, the student may choose to register for another equivalent course in that program and approval of the Academic Division Committee must be obtained, except in case of an elective course where the student is allowed to register for the same course or choose another elective course.

20.2 In case of a student whose grade level is lower than C+ or has a U in any course, if re-registration is made, credits of the re-registered course must be added in the calculation of grade point average.

Article 21. To enroll in continuous courses, a student is required to complete a prerequisite course in order to enroll in a more advanced course, except for those students who are expected to graduate in that particular academic year. Such students may enroll in both the prerequisite and advanced courses at the same time, subject to consent of the Chief of Academic Division and permission of the Director of Office of the Registrar. In this regard, the student shall file a request with the academic division he/she belongs to within three weeks from the date of commencement of the semester.

Article 22. Registration for maintenance of a student status

22.1 A student who has earned all credits and passed all course examinations, but has not completed the final oral examination of thesis, independent study, or any similar course called by another name, must register to maintain his/her student status and pay the student status maintenance fee as determined by the Institute, except in a special semester.

22.2 If a student has made lump-sum payment of tuition fees, but has not completed his/her education because he/she has not earned all credits and/or failed some examinations required by the program structure, or wishes to take any additional courses, the student may enroll by making payment of student status maintenance fee.

22.3 A student must register to maintain his/her student status within three weeks from the first day of a semester. Upon expiry of such period, the student may register to maintain his/her student status with approval of the Chief of Academic Division. The registration shall be completed before the start date of final examinations of that semester.

22.4 A student takes practical training overseas or becomes an exchange student, not being a part of the study, shall register to maintain his/her student status every semester, except in the special semester, until he/she returns to study as usual.

22.5 A student enrolling in a program offered in cooperation with another country must register to maintain his/her student status while studying abroad.

22.6 A student on whom the punishment of suspension is imposed shall register to maintain his/her student status every semester, except in the special semester, until he/she returns to study as usual.

Article 23. Students have to register to maintain their student status and make full payment of tuition fees at the rate determined by the Institute after approval is granted by Director of the Office of the Registrar.

Article 24. In case of students who need to register to maintain their student status under Clause 22, if they fail to do so, their student status shall be terminated.

Chapter 6
Course Addition, Change, and Withdrawal

.....

Article 25. Course addition, change, and withdrawal shall require approval of the advisor as follows:

25.1 In case of a student who has not registered for thesis or independent study courses, approval of an academic advisor shall be sought.

25.2 In case of a student who has registered for thesis or independent study courses, approval of the thesis or independent study major advisor shall be sought.

26.1.1 Application for addition or change of courses in regular semester and special semester must not be contrary to the requirement of Article 16 and credits of the added or new courses must be included in the calculation of grade point average.

26.1.2 A student who wishes to add or change his/her courses must do so within the period of time indicated in the academic calendar, except in the case where it is necessary to add or change courses upon expiry of such period of time. In that case, the Chief of Academic Division shall have the power to grant approval.

26.2 Application for course withdrawal

26.2.1 A student who wishes to withdraw courses must do so within the period of time indicated in the academic calendar. Upon expiry of such period, course withdrawal will not be allowed, except for thesis and independent study courses, which can be withdrawn after such period. However, approval of the Academic Division Committee or its authorized representative must be obtained.

26.2.2 Credits of the withdrawn courses will not be included in calculation of grade point average.

26.2.3 If a course is closed by relevant academic division, students must contact the Office of the Registrar to change the course with approval of an academic advisor within the designated period of time. If any student fails to contact the Office of the Registrar within such period, it shall be deemed that he/she has withdrawn such closed course and the Office of the Registrar may immediately withdraw such course.

26.2.4 In the case where courses are withdrawn to the point that the remaining credit is zero, it shall be deemed that the student takes a leave of absence.

Chapter 7
Auditing and Learning for the Purpose of Broadening Knowledge and Accumulating Credits

.....

Article 27. Auditing a course is defined as learning by students or outsiders applying for studying in the program for the purpose of broadening their knowledge. Credits of the audited course will not be included in the program being studied.

27.1 The program or advisor may require students to take non-credit (NC) course whose credits will not be included in the program and no grade point average will not be calculated.

27.2 Registration for an audited course shall be the same as for a regular one.

27.3 If a student has audited a course, he/she may not subsequently repeat such course for credit, except in the case where the student changes the program and the new program requires the student to take such course and accumulate the credit.

27.4 Registration, addition, change and withdrawal of audited courses shall be in compliance with Chapter 5 and Chapter 6 hereof.

27.5 Audited courses will be evaluated only with an "S" or a "U".

Article 28. Student may enroll in subjects or training courses that the Institute organizes for the general people to study for the purpose of broadening their knowledge and accumulating credits.

Credits and study results of any subjects or training courses under the first paragraph can be used for graduation in the program the students take. This shall be in compliance with resolutions of the Academic Council and approved by the Academic Division. Such credits and study results may also be transferred when the students attend any other program in the future.

Rates of tuition fees, rules and procedures in this Chapter shall be in line with the Institute's Regulation regarding admission of general people to study for the purpose of broadening their knowledge and accumulating credits and the Institute's notifications issued pursuant to such regulation.

Chapter 8
Assessment and Grading

Article 29. Course assessment

29.1 Results of course assessment must be approved by the Academic Division Committee responsible for the course.

29.2 The credit system shall be utilized primarily in assessment of the performance of the students. For measurement and reporting of the performance, letter grades shall be assigned and grade point average shall be calculated from the equivalent grade points as follows:

Grade	Score	Meaning
A	4.00	Excellent
B+	3.50	Very Good
B	3.00	Good

C	2.00	Fair
D+	1.50	Poor
D	1.00	Very Poor
F	0	Fail
I	-	Incomplete
S	-	Satisfactory
U	-	Unsatisfactory
T	-	Transfer

29.3 With regard to measurement of the thesis and independent study examination for Plan 1 Doctoral Program and Plan 1.1 Master's Degree Program, the grade points shall be equal to the following scores:

Grade	Corresponding score
O (Outstanding)	4.00
G (Good)	3.50
P (Pass)	3.00
U (Unsatisfactory)	0

29.4 Letter grades of A, B+, B, C+, C, D+, D, and F can be issued for courses that students take examination and/or have any outputs that can be evaluated by level of achievement. For seminar, thesis, or courses other than those, only the grade of S or U shall be awarded.

29.5 Grade "T" will be given only for courses transferred from other education institutions.

29.6 The grades considered to pass the examinations include A, B+, B, C+, S, and T.

29.7 If an 'I' is given in any course, conversion of the 'I' to another grade must be complete within a period of not more than two weeks from the first day of the next semester. If the student enrolls in a special semester, such special semester shall also be counted. If the student fails to make conversion within the designated period, the Office of the Registrar must notify the academic division to follow up and report the results back to the Office of the Registrar as soon as possible, but not exceeding three weeks from the first day of the next regular semester.

Article 30. Procedures for taking the final examinations shall be as follows:

30.1 The examinations shall be organized on the date, time and at the venue indicated in the examination schedule.

30.2 Where there is a force majeure causing a student to be unable to take an examination, the student may be allowed to withdraw the course that he/she cannot take the examination only in the following cases:

30.2.1 The student is ill or had an accident and a medical certificate issued by a public or private hospital, medical clinic, KMITL or any organization determined by the Institute indicating that the student is unable to take the examination is presented to the Institute.

30.2.2 The student is ordained as a monk at a funeral rite. In this case, a certificate issued by his/her parent or custodian is required.

30.2.3 The student's parent, custodian, brother or sister born to the same father and mother passes away, suffers an accident, or is ill and it is necessary for the student to stay and help with.

30.2.4 Other cases shall be at sole discretion of the lecturer and chief of academic division, or a person designated by the academic division.

The student shall file a request together with evidence of force majeure leading to withdrawal of the course. Approval of the chief of academic division or the chief of another division owning the course, as the case may be, and permission of Director of the Office of the Registrar shall be granted.

30.3 For students who get the Institute's approval to participate in academic contests or national or international activities contributing to the Institute's reputation, the Institute may arrange for them to take the final examination before or after the scheduled examination date.

30.4 In the case where there is an extreme necessity making it impossible for a student to attend the final examination on the date and time indicated in the academic calendar, it shall be at the sole discretion of the chief of academic division or any person designated by the academic division to allow the student to take the final examination before or after the scheduled examination date.

30.5 A students who cheats on examinations will not be evaluated for the semester that he/she commits cheating and will be suspended for the next regular semester. If the next semester is a special one, the suspension shall be effective in that special semester and the coming regular semester.

Article 31. Grade Point Average Calculation

31.1 Grade point average will be calculated at the end of each semester. To calculate the grade point average, multiply the number of credits with the grade received and, then, divide the total number of credits registered in the semester concerned. The grade point average may carry only 2 decimal points. If the third figure after the decimal point is equal to or greater than 5, the second figure should be rounded up. Re-registered courses under Article 20 shall be included in the grade point average calculation, but those courses evaluated by S, U or T and the non-credit courses shall not be included.

31.2 There are two types of grade point average as follows:

31.2.1 Grade Point Average of Semester (GPS) is the grade point average calculated only for the courses taken or transferred in that particular semester.

31.2.2 Cumulative Grade Point Average (GPA) is the grade point average calculated from every course taken or transferred from the first semester to the current one.

31.3 Calculation of grade point average for graduation shall comply with the following requirements:

31.3.1 For Plan 2 Doctoral Program and Plan 1.2 and Plan 2 Master's Degree Program, only the number of credits of the enrolled courses specified in the curriculum, including those re-registered courses, shall be calculated.

31.3.2 For Plan 1 Doctoral Program and Plan 1.1 Master's Degree Program, results of the oral defense of thesis shall be as follows:

Letter Grade	Corresponding score
O (Outstanding)	4.00
G (Good)	3.50
P (Pass)	3.00
U (Unsatisfactory)	0

Grades shall also be recorded on the transcript.

Article 32. Probation

32.1 Students who have obtained a GPA of lower than 3.00 shall be placed on probation. During the probation period, if the students' grade point average of the following semester is lower than 3.00, such students' student status shall be terminated. In this regard, the grade point average shall include the special semester.

32.2 Probationary students will be discharged from the probation status when their GPA is not less than 3.00, including the special semester.

32.3 For students who have earned all credits required by the program, if their GPA is lower than 3.00, it shall be deemed that they have not graduated and have to re-register for courses in accordance with requirements of Article 20. The academic output shall specify the name of the author to include the name of the student as well as the names of the major thesis advisor, the Academic Division, and the Institute.

46.5 Submitting the final version of the thesis or independent study report, which has been approved by the examination committee or its delegate;

46.6 Having no financial obligations due to the Institute.

Article 47. A student's graduation date is considered the date on which he/she has completed the final oral defense and submitted the final thesis report that has been corrected within the designated timeframe.

Chapter 11
Transfer of Credits and Research Outputs

.....

Article 48. The Institute has determined the requirements for transfer of academic records of courses within the Institute and other higher education institutions as follows:

48.1 Criteria for course matching

48.1.1 A course or module must match three-fourths or more of the content of the equivalent course or module;

48.1.2 Course matching must be approved by the committee of the academic division, which owns that course.

48.2 Criteria for transferring credits

48.2.1 Transfer of credits refers to the transfer of academic records of a course or module that the student has studied with the Institute before (maybe due to termination of student status and/or leave of absence) or has participated in the training organized by the Institute, provided that the student was allowed to accumulate the credits of such course or module. Credits that can be transferred may also be obtained from the non-formal education or informal education. Transfer of credits shall be applied for when the student wishes to resume his/her study in the same or new program. An academic division that accepts the student shall consider transferring the student's study results and credits.

48.2.2 In case of transfer of courses or modules from other education institutions, only one-third of the total credits required by the program may be transferred.

48.2.3 In case of a transfer of academic records of a course or module in the program offered in cooperation with an overseas institution, the transfer can be made under the memorandum of understanding.

48.2.4 Transfer of credits is only allowed for the courses that students have obtained a grade level of not lower than B, or 3.00 or its equivalent, or an S result or its equivalent.

48.2.5 In case of a student who has completed the Graduate Diploma Program of the Institute, if he/she pursues the Master's Degree in the same or related field of study, the credit transfer is allowed.

Article 49. In case of a master's or doctoral student whose status was terminated due to resignation, failure to enroll, failure to maintain his/her student status, failure to return to study without applying for additional leave of absence and no communication has been made for over three academic years, failing the qualifying examination within the designated time, if he/she becomes a new student within two years after the date of termination, as the case may be, and enrolls in the same program, his/her research and examination outputs may be transferred in accordance with the following criteria:

49.1 Transferable research output must be one that has been published in an international academic journal or presented in an international academic conference (proceedings) approved by the Academic Division Committee and the Academic Council; and

49.2 The research output must have been accepted for publication or published not over two years from the date of publication to the date of the student's registration as a doctoral student. If the journal only indicates the month and year of publication, the last day of the month shall be regarded as the date of publication; and

49.3 The research output to be transferred must be related to the thesis title; and

49.4 The research output must specify the authors consisting of the student and the major advisor who is the same person as the current major advisor, the academic division, and the Institute, except where the major advisor named in the research output has his/her status as a full-time lecturer terminated. Then, such research output may be transferred; and

49.5 Results of the English Proficiency for Graduation Test;

49.6 Results of the qualifying examination (if any);

49.7 Approval of the Academic Division Committee and the Academic Council must be obtained; and

49.8 The transfer of credits must comply with the requirements set forth in Article 48.

Chapter 12
Leave of Absence, Resignation and Termination

Article 50. A leave of absence is a period of time when a student is not enrolled in classes in a particular semester, provided that such leave of absence period will not be computed as part of the duration of study in the program. The student will be granted the non-student status. A student may apply for a leave of absence by giving a reason for such leave, which must be approved by the academic division and recorded by Office of the Registrar. The student shall apply for a leave of absence for each semester or every year. In the case where the student does not resume his/her study and does not apply for an additional leave of absence, provided that he/she has lost contact for a total period of more than three academic years, it shall be considered that his/her student status is terminated.

A student who wishes to maintain his/her student status during the leave of absence shall pay the leave of absence fee for every regular semester. In case of the student's failure to pay the leave of absence fee, the Institute will transform the student's status to a general person and keep his/her study results in the credit bank. However, a general person who wishes to resume his/her study in the program may pay the outstanding leave of absence fee to resume his/her student status and the study results, courses, or modules stored in the credit bank will be transferred and can be used normally in the program.

50.1 With regard to a leave of absence in a particular semester, if the student has enrolled in courses, such enrollment shall be deemed to have been cancelled. All of the courses enrolled will not be displayed on the transcript of record for the semester in which the leave of absence takes place. The student will not be able to convert the "I" result to another grade.

50.2 The student, or his/her custodian in the case where the student is unable to be present on his/her own, may apply for a leave of absence together with evidence, as the case may be, to Director of the Office of the Registrar. Application for leave of absence must be completed before the final examinations of the semester that the student wishes to take a leave of absence.

50.3 A student whose application for leave of absence is approved must make payment of the leave of absence fee when he/she returns to study. Payment shall be made in accordance with the Institute's Notification.

50.4 A student who wishes to take a leave of absence for more than one academic year must obtain approval of the Director of the Office of the Registrar.

Article 51. Student status will be terminated under the following circumstances:

51.1 Death;

51.2 Resignation or termination of student status by probation under Article 32;

51.3 Punishment of registration or dismissal from the Institute under Chapter 13;

51.4 Lack of qualification under Article 13;

51.5 Failure to enroll in courses under Article 17;

51.6 Failure to comply with leave of absence rules under Article 50 without any contact for longer than three years;

51.7 Obtaining a GPA lower than 2.50;

51.8 Being caught cheating on an exam after having been punished for such wrongdoing before;

51.9 Having obtained approval for graduation;

51.10 Being unable to transform into a regular student within the specified period of time;

51.11 No progress has been made in the student's thesis or independent study. The student has obtained a U for two semesters;

51.12 Failure to pass the final oral defense of a thesis in the second attempt;

51.13 Failure to make payment of tuition fees within the time specified under 17.5;

51.14 Failing the qualifying examination within the time specified under 33.1;

51.15 In case of doctoral students, failing the English Entrance Examination as required by the Institute or being unable to enroll in and pass English courses organized by the Institute within one year from the date of being admitted as a student.

Article 52. Resignation: a student shall submit an application for resignation to Director of the Office of the Registrar together with consent of the advisor and Head of the Program, President of the Program, or Head of the Department, and Chief of Academic Division for approval. No approval will be granted if the student has financial obligations due to the Institute.

Article 53. At the end of every semester, Director of the Office of the Registrar will announce the names of students who are terminated and remove them from the student register.

If necessary, a student whose status has been terminated under 51.5 or 51.13 may submit an application to resume his/her status with approval of the President and consent of the Chief of Academic Division to which the student belongs. In this regard, the student or his/her custodian in the case where the student is unable to proceed on his/her own is required to apply for retrospective leave of absence and make full payment of tuition fees. Such application must be made no later than two years from the date of termination of the student status.

54.6.9 Carrying out any act that damages or defames the Institute, such as being hired to take exam for other persons, either in or outside the Institute;

54.6.10 Copying other person's thesis or academic paper or independent study report for oneself or any other person, or using the same academic paper with another person in applying for graduation;

54.6.11 Hiring other person to write a thesis or independent study report for oneself or any other person;

54.6.12 Carrying out any other act that is deemed a serious disciplinary offense by the Discipline Committee. After being presented with the matter, the President is of the opinion that it is serious.

Article 55. There are three modest disciplinary actions as follows:

55.1 Verbal warning;

55.2 Probation;

55.3 Compensation for damage caused.

Article 56. There are three serious disciplinary actions as follows:

56.1 Suspension of study;

56.2 Expulsion;

56.3 Dismissal.

Article 57. If the student commits any disciplinary offenses under Article 54, except for 54.6.5, the President may order a punishment proportional to the offense committed. However, if there is any reason for punishment mitigation, such reason may be taken into consideration to reduce the punishment. After the President has issued and signed the punishment order, the academic division shall, without delay, notify the student and the Office of the Registrar of such punishment order.

Article 58. In the case where the student cheats in exam under 54.6.5 and there is clear evidence of such cheat, the chief of academic division must conduct and complete an investigation of the student's offense as soon as possible from the date of detection and propose the investigation result to the President to impose a punishment under 30.5. After the President has issued and signed a punishment order, the academic division shall notify the student of such punishment order without delay as well as the Office of the Registrar.

Article 59. In the case where the student commits any offense under Article 54, except for cheating in exam under 54.6.5, the Discipline Committee appointed by the Institute shall have the power to initiate a disciplinary action against the accused student immediately to investigate the offense in a fair and quick manner. Recommended punishment shall then be submitted to the President for approval. After the President has issued and signed a punishment order, the discipline committee shall notify the student of such punishment order without delay as well as the chief of academic division that the student belongs to and the Office of the Registrar.

61.8 Not copying or hiring another person to write for oneself a thesis or independent study report or any other academic output, which is essential for graduation; and 61.9 Not having any financial obligations due to the Institute.

Article 62. To apply for approval to attend the commencement ceremony, students shall comply with and adhere to all requirements and procedures as well as date, time and place indicated in the Institute's educational calendar, and pay the fee to receive the degree as required by the Institute.

Article 63. A student who lacks any qualifications under Article 61 shall be regarded as lacking dignity and honor and not being eligible for the degree. Any one of the following decision may be made with respect to such student:

63.1 The student will not be nominated to receive the Institute's degree;

63.2 Nomination for receiving the degree will be delayed for one to three academic years in proportion to severity of the offense committed.

Article 64. At the end of each academic year, if there are any students lacking the qualifications under Article 61, the Academic Division Committee shall proceed in accordance with Article 63 and submit the result to the Office of the Registrar to further propose to the Academic Council and the Institute Council for consideration. In case of a student who is considered by the Institute Council as unsuitable for receiving the degree, if he/she deems that he/she is treated unfairly, the student has the right to file a written and signed appeal with the President. A certified copy of the appeal must also be submitted to the chief of academic division within 15 days from the date the student is aware that he/she is considered unsuitable for receiving the degree.

Article 65. The chief of academic division must submit a clarification of the appeal to the Institute within seven days from the date of receipt of the certified copy of such appeal under Article 64.

Article 66. When the President has received the appeal together with the clarification given by the chief of academic division, they must be submitted to the Academic Committee for consideration immediately in order to be further proposed to the Institute Council for consideration.

Chapter 15
Revocation of the Degree or Diploma

.....

Article 67. The Institute Council may consider revoking a degree or diploma that has been approved for any graduate in the following cases:

67.1 The graduate does not possess all qualifications of a candidate or graduate of the program that he/she has graduated under Article 13 or 46. Revocation of the degree or diploma shall be effective from the date the Institute Council approves the award of a degree or diploma to such person.
